Archaeological Investigations at Ipsley,
1968 and 1969

By P. J. ROSE, M.A., M.P.H.
Director, Glynned Archaeological Trust

Abstract:
This report contains a summary of the archaeological work carried out at Ipsley, Leicestershire, in 1968 and 1969. The work was carried out as part of a programme of archaeological investigations in the area of the proposed Ipsley New Town.

Contents:
1. Introduction
2. The Ipsley Area
3. The Archaeological Work
4. The Results of the Work
5. Conclusions

The Ipsley Area:
The Ipsley area is situated in the south-east of Leicestershire, about 10 miles south of Leicester. It is bounded to the north by the River Soar, to the east by the River Great Ouse, to the south by the River Nidd, and to the west by the River Trent.
